Clause 9: Open Access Publishing

9.1 Publisher will publish in Open Access any Qualifying Article submitted by an Eligible Author and accepted by Publisher for publication, for journals specified in Schedule C-c, at no direct costs to the author or the Institution, subject to such article being within the Publication Cap. Eligibility is checked during the acceptance process. The Publisher may, at its absolute discretion and at any time during the term of this Licence Agreement, agree to increase the Publication Cap.

9.2 Eligible Authors will be identified by Publisher.

9.3 Eligible Authors can be identified through at least one of the following parameters:

- A drop down list of the institutions;
- Institutional e-mail domain;
- affiliation as stated in the article to be published.

Read & Publish Agreement Schedule C

If the identification was not successful, Publisher will undertake a regular reconciliation process to subsequently identify Eligible Authors, which may involve contacting relevant library staff at the Institution.

- 9.4 The Publisher will clearly indicate the availability of this Agreement to Eligible Authors on acceptance of the article. This will make clear that Eligible Authors do not need to pay Article Processing Charges ("APC") for Open Access Articles.
- 9.5 Any Qualifying Article by an Eligible Author that has been published under a standard licence will be published in Open Access retroactively as from the start date of this Licence Agreement, for the journals specified in Schedule C-c.

All publications must be published under such Creative Commons license as decided by the Eligible Author. Third-party content included in a publication, for example images or graphics, should be clearly labelled and are not affected by these requirements.
- 9.7 If a journal offers several types of Creative Commons licenses to Eligible Authors, CC BY (as the most open licence) will be presented by the Publisher as the default option, including a clear message to the Submitting Author that publication under a CC BY licence (as opposed to the more restrictive license models CC BY-NC, CC BY-ND or CC BY-NC-ND) is preferred by the Institution and required by most funders.
- 9.8 In the case of 9.6, it will be within the Eligible Author's full discretion to choose the preferred licence model. In case the Eligible Author prefers to publish under a more restrictive Creative Commons license (CC BY-NC, CC BY-ND or CC BY-NC-ND or another NC/ND variant), the Author will not be under any obligation to license the commercial or derivative rights reserved under the restrictive license to the Publisher. The Publisher will clearly inform the Submitting Author that in case the author(s) choose(s) to publish under a restrictive CC license, the commercial and/or derivative rights are retained by the Eligible Authors, without the obligation to license these rights to the Publisher. In that case, the Eligible Author may request at any moment to change the licence model into CC BY because of (changing) funder requirements and the Publisher will cooperate with such request without undue delay.
- 9.9 Hybrid Journals that are being changed to Full Open Access journals in the course of this Agreement will continue to be available for Open Access publishing for the duration of this Agreement.
- 9.10 If after submission of an article the eligibility of that article changes, Publisher will immediately inform the Submitting Author.
- 9.11 Publisher shall deliver a full report of all articles (Open Access and otherwise) published by the Institutions over the period 1 January until 30 June and 1 July until 31 December. The author can choose whether to fund the APC or to publish their article on a subscription basis.
- 9.17 The Institution acknowledges that, before an article by an Eligible Author will be accepted for publication:
- (i) Such article must be submitted, peer reviewed and accepted in accordance with the Open Access Workflow set out at Schedule C-d; and
 - (ii) The owner(s) of any copyright in such article must enter into the Publisher's standard open access publishing agreement, substantially in the form set out in Schedule C-e (dependent on the CC licence chosen by the author).
- 9.20 Nothing in this Licence Agreement shall oblige the Publisher to publish any article submitted to the Publisher by an Eligible Author or Institution. The Institution acknowledges that the selection or material via peer review to be published in an Open Access journal is entirely at the discretion of the Publisher and/or the editors of proprietors of the Open Access journal and the Institution waives any claim it may have against the Publisher in the event that the Publisher or its editors decline to publish any material (or part thereof) submitted by an Eligible Author or an Institution.

Clause 10: Text and Datamining

- 10.1 Publisher recognizes that TDM offers researchers a powerful tool which allows them to make connections between otherwise unrelated facts, and as a result inspire them to form new hypotheses and adopt new approaches. In order to accommodate this approach Publisher facilitates licensed TDM.

 - the Publisher stops operations, or
 - the Publisher ceases to publish a title, or
 - the Publisher no longer offers back issues.
- 11.3 Continuous access in case of termination of this Agreement:
In the case of termination of this Agreement, Publisher will provide (at the option of SURF) the Institutions and its End-Users with access to and use of the Licensed Material until the termination date only; there will not be continuous, perpetual access to the Licensed Material.
- To avoid any confusion about continuous access rights acquired under this and preceding agreements between SURF and Publisher, Parties have agreed to create an overview of these continuous access rights. This overview is (as a one-time Schedule) included to this agreement under Schedule C-h.
- 11.4 Continuous access in case of transfer of a journal title:

The Institution shall upon learning of any such breach, (i) take all necessary steps to assist the Publisher to identify the breaching End-User and take all available action against the End-User; and (ii) adopt all necessary measures in order to mitigate and remedy the breach of the End-User as far as possible.

The Publisher shall inform the Institution of any suspension for this reason. Such suspension shall be for such time period as the Publisher deems appropriate, in their absolute discretion.
- 12.5 Neither the Institution or their End-Users may:
- (i) Remove or alter the authors' names or the Publisher's copyright notices or other means of identification or disclaimers as they appear in the Licensed Materials;
 - (ii) Systematically make print or electronic copies of multiple extracts of the Licensed Materials, including complete issues, for any purpose;
 - (iii) Mount or distribute any part of the Licensed Material on any electronic network, including without limitation the Internet and the World Wide Web, other than the secure network of the Institution; or
 - (iv) Systematically distribute the whole or any part of the Licensed Materials to anyone other than an End-User.

Clause 14: Privacy

- 14.1 Institutions are responsible for the processing of personal data in compliance with applicable Data Protection Law.
- 14.2 The Parties Agree that the Publisher may process Institution Data for the purposes of providing the Institution and its End-Users with the Services in accordance with this Agreement. - 14.5 Publisher may not use the Institution Data for its own purposes outside of this Agreement or the Read & Publish Agreement.
- 14.6 Publisher will not allow access third parties to the Institution Data without the consent of SURF or the Institution except pursuant to the following general authorisation. The Publisher will conduct appropriate due diligence in respect of the Sub-processor's data privacy and security practices and procedures and shall enter into a written agreement with each Sub-processor containing obligations which are equivalent to those set out in this clause.
- 14.7 The Publisher will not transfer any Institution Data outside the UK except to the European Economic Area or as described in the Publisher's Privacy Policy currently available at <http://taylorandfrancis.com/customer-privacy> and otherwise with the express prior written consent of the Institution.
